FRANKFORT, KY., JULY 11, 1885.

Number 43.

Mr. Frank C. Hughes, of this city, has been appointed by the Governor one of the State Board of Pharmacy for the ensuing year.

Geo. Gaines, who was sent to the Penitentiary for life from this county, for the murder of Chas. Penn three years ago, was buried yesterday, having died in the prison.

Mr. E. Blackburn, the new Deputy Collector, has established his office with Messrs. Payne & Berry, on St. Clair street, and entered upon the discharge of his duties.

No more pleasant excursion can be taken this hot weather than a trip down to Louisville and return on one of the boats now running between here and that city. It is splendid.

The water is being drawn off from this pool to allow the contractors for the construction of dam No. 5 to lay the foundations for that structure. This will not interfere very materially with the running of the boats to this city.

Mr. L. F. Compton, having just completed refitting and overhauling the Elkhorn Water Mills, having put in the complete roller system, is now prepared to furnish as fine flour as there is to be had in this section. Read his advertisement on the first page.

Attention, A. G. Bacon Post.

There will be a special meeting on Monday, July 13th, at the store room of V. Bixby, on business of importance. All committees in charge for the months in their districts on the 30th of June last, are called on to pay or stand suspended.

D. W. LINSDAY, Commander.

R. B. TAYLOR, Adjutant.

At a meeting of the Baptist Sunday school, on Sunday, July 5, on motion

it was

Resolved, That the thanks of this Sunday-school, both teachers and pupils, are hereby heartily tendered to Col. R. D. Allen for his kindness in granting the use of the K. M. M. grounds and buildings for our use on the 4th of July, and all other occasions so graciously given.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to all who, in any way, contributed to the success of our picnic.

Resolved, That the ROUNDABOUT, Yeoman and Capital be requested to publish these resolutions.

"All True Democrats to Brown."

Editor Roundabout: I am from an old live-and-let-live Democrat about the State Senator's election first Monday in August. Every honest Democrat in the three counties knows, that Franklin county, by a solemn, inviolable and perfectly fair and legitimate contract is entitled to the next Senatorial seat for one year, she says.

If we can help it, he is swindled or pooh-poohed out of it by the sharpers and pol-pol-house politicians of Anderson and Mercer. Therefore, I further say deliberately and without fear of disavowal from any man of common integrity, that is the reason every honest Democrat in Franklin's candidate. Hon. Alex. G. Browner, the brave and accomplished mechanic who has done as much for river improvement as any two men in the State and will be better qualified to represent this district in the Senate than all the would-be Solons and Lycurguses of Mercer and Anderson rolled into one.

A STRAIGHT DEMOCRATIC VOTER
FOR 28 YEARS.

The L. O. of G. and D. S. of N. A. Grand Council, No. 8, State of Kentucky, held their Annual Session in the Public School building, Clinton street, Tuesday morning, June 23d, spending five days in the city. They closed their session with a grand picnic at the Elkhorn Water Mills. The parade was one of the grandest ever given in this city by the colored people. Too much cannot be said in favor of the Good Samaritans. The body was presided over by Rev. C. G. Vaughn, Dr. S. G. Cox who presided over that body for many years, and for his untiring labors was elected by acclamation. We therefore recommend the Good Samaritans to all well-wishers of a benevolent order.

Resolutions were adopted thanking the School Board for the use of the building, and also the citizens of Frankfort for their generosity. They adjourned to meet at Hopkinsville the 4th Tuesday in June, 1886. A CITIZEN.

The Franklin County Democratic Committee is the weakest. It has not married, nor will it consent to be married to the country quite the reverse. It prefers to dig up the Hatchet, and thereafter will therewith propose to buy the aforesaid Hatchet. To be plain about it, the committee, the druggists and the men fully met in conclave in the grimness and gloom of the Circuit Court room and directed the President to forthwith remove the said Hatchet. President at once did so, now independently holding his nose and distilling the U. S. mail, chiefly consisting of love letters and duns, in the harborage of the Capitol Hotel.

They know what the people call for, and they hear what their patrons say as to whether the medicines they buy work well or not. Martell & Johnson, Rush City, Minn., say, "Brown's Iron Bitters give entire satisfaction to our customers." Klinchammer & Co., Jordan, Minn., say, "We sell more Brown's Iron Bitters than all other bitters combined." L. E. Hackley & Son, Winona, Minn., say, "All our customers speak highly of Brown's Iron Bitters." W. H. Williams, Jackson, Minn., says, Brown's Iron Bitters is giving good satisfaction to our purchasers." These are only a few. We have hundreds more just as good.

What Do the Druggists Say?

They know what the people call for, and they hear what their patrons say as to whether the medicines they buy work well or not. Martell & Johnson, Rush City, Minn., say, "Brown's Iron Bitters give entire satisfaction to our customers." Klinchammer & Co., Jordan, Minn., say, "We sell more Brown's Iron Bitters than all other bitters combined." L. E. Hackley & Son, Winona, Minn., say, "All our customers speak highly of Brown's Iron Bitters." W. H. Williams, Jackson, Minn., says, Brown's Iron Bitters is giving good satisfaction to our purchasers." These are only a few. We have hundreds more just as good.

Another Cancer.

About three years ago there appeared on my right breast several hard lumps which were evidently malignant in origin. They continued to grow, and finally developed into what the doctors called cancer of the breast. In a short time I found my strength gone and my constitution a total wreck. From a robust woman I was reduced to a helpless invalid. Several of the best physicians of Atlanta treated me for cancer, but without improving my condition in the least, and finally agreeing that they could do nothing for me. The cancer by this time was eating out my very life, and after five months I was bedridden creature. As I was one year ago under suggestion of a friend, I commenced the use of Swift's Specific. The first influence of the medicine was to increase the discharge, but after a month or more I began to improve, and this wonderful medicine has brought back my health, and while I am not yet out of my house-work, I am perfectly free from pain, and feel like a new person altogether. I cannot feel too grateful for this wonderful recovery, for I am satisfied if it had not been for Swift's Specific I would have been in my grave today. I must cheerfully recommend it to all those who are suffering with this fearful disease.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky

GEORGE A. LEWIS,
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, JULY 11, 1885.

While walking about on the joists laid upon the foundation for the addition to his residence, Friday evening, Mr. Albert H. McClure made a misstep and fell, breaking some of the leaders of his right foot loose and bruising his knee so badly as to confine him to the house for several days.

An excursion train will leave this city for Louisville at 7 o'clock, on Sunday morning, July 26th, for the purpose of enabling the lovers of base ball to witness the game between the Louisville and Cincinnati Clubs. The fare for the round trip will be $1.75, and returning the train will leave Louisville at 10 o'clock at night.

The operas of Bohemian Girl and Trial by Jury were repeated at the Opera House Thursday evening, by Prof. Graham and pupils, before a large and appreciative audience. The costumes of the performers were exceedingly pretty, the singing first rate, and the entertainment highly creditable to the Professor and his scholars.

On last Saturday night about half past eight o'clock an alarm of fire was sounded from the second ward, which proved to be a considerable blaze. Three frame cottages belonging to Jas. Vealey (colored), Judge W. L. Jett, and Martha Moore were destroyed. The fire department were promptly on hand and extinguished the flames before any further damage was done. Loss $1,000, partially insured.

A little child of Mr John Burdin, who lives about a mile beyond the Forks of Elkhorn, on the Georgetown pike, went to the residence of Mr. Loyd Featherston, a neighbor, on an errand Friday afternoon, and was attacked and nearly torn to pieces by a savage dog belonging to Mr. Featherston. The little one was only about eight or nine years of age, and it was thought for a time to be fatally injured, but was some better now.

At a stockholders meeting of the Jacksonsville and Benson Valley Turnpike Road Company held on Monday, the following board of directors were elected to serve the ensuing year: David Moore, Francis Gools, Thomas White, Geo. Bryant and Polk Moore. After which the board organized by electing David Moore President and Wm C. Bryant, Secretary. Good morning, Mr. President.

The game of base ball in this city Saturday, the 12th, between the Lagrange and Frankfort clubs resulted in a score of 11 to 10 in favor of the visitors. The home team played well until the 7th inning, the score standing 9 to 4 in their favor, when Mr. Shuman, of the Lagrange club, knocked a home run which completely rattled them. A good crowd was in attendance and all enjoyed the game. Mr. Pat Clifford, of this city, umpired the game.

LOST.—On Monday, somewhere on St. Clair or Main streets, seventeen dollars in paper, a ten, a five and a two dollar bill rolled together. The finder will please leave same at this office and be rewarded.

Tol Paxton, who was adjudged insane by a jury several months ago, and who had to be taken to the Lexington jail for safe keeping until he could be admitted to the Asylum in that city, was lodged in the latter institution Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Dan Meagher.

At a banquet given at Raton, New Mexico, on Friday evening of last week, in honor of Hon. E. G. Ross, the newly appointed Governor of that Territory, Mr. Sidney French, formerly of this city, was one of the speakers of the evening. His address is published in full in the Weekly Independent of that place.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, JULY 11, 1885.

There are several cases of scarlet fever in a mild form in South Frankfort.

The Fourth passed off very quietly in this city, most of our citizens being out of town.

The water supply from the hydrants is failing and water has to be carried several squares.

Workmen will commence laying brick on Mr. Jas. H. Graham's new residence on Monday.

The mercury is climbing up. Wednesday and Thursday were the warmest days we have had yet.

Mr. Chas. C. Furr is ahead of the balance of the South Side gardeners. He ate ripe tomatoes from his garden on Saturday.

A primary election will be held today by the Democracy of this county to decide who will be their candidate for County Clerk.

To Louisville and Return, by Water.

A party composed of Judge L. Ford and wife, Mrs. R. C. Steele, Mrs. L. C. Kendall, Mrs. Sue Satterwhite, of Eminence, Mrs. Jas. W. Hefner, Miss Laura Campbell, Dr. Powell Rowlett, Master Harry Case, Mrs. Goo. A. Lewis and the writer left here on Saturday afternoon, on board the Steamer Hornet, bound for Louisville, and at Elkhorn we were join by Mrs. A. M. Forsee and daughter, Mrs. Mary, of Peak's Mill. The weather was splendid, a strong breeze, whether the boat was in motion or tied up at a landing, kept every one cool and comfortable the entire trip, the scenery along the river was exceedingly beautiful, and we doubt if any one in the entire party ever enjoyed an excursion more. Capt. Robert Humphrey, the veteran river man, was in command of the boat and did everything in his power to make the trip pleasant and agreeable, in which he was also assisted by Capt. Cash, and Mr. John Claxton, the pilots, and Messrs. J. Oscar Burns and Sid. Douthit, clerks, all of whom performed their tasks well.

The first night out was spent at Burns' Landing, and several of the passengers took occasion to visit Monterey, a half mile off, which place was enjoying its first church festival, and some of its streets were beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns. Mrs. M. W. Wilhoit, formerly of this city, was one of the moving spirits in the affair, and at the time of our visit the vote was being taken as to who was the most popular young lady present, the successful candidate to receive a beautiful cake which had been presented to the ladies of the church by the officers of the Steamer Bluewing. It cost ten cents a vote and the contest was quite spirited, some of the boys casting thirty and forty votes at a time for their favorite girl.

At the mouth of Drennon nearly all of the Frankfort colony who are sojourning at Drennon Springs were at the landing to see us go by. Their number was increased by Mrs. Capt. S. V. Pence and several others who went that far with us.

Just above Worthville we met the dandy little Bluewing with such a heavy load on that the waves were washing over her guards. Our boat, too, was doing a splendid business, as we had on board 85 passengers, 84 hogsheads of tobacco, about 100 bags of hay, and a large lot of miscellaneous freight.

On leaving Carrollton we rode a long distance in the pilot house to get a good view of the famous Hunter's Bottom and the beautiful scenery on the Ohio, and were greatly entertained by the conversation of Capt. Humphrey, whose farm and home is in the "Bottom" and he knew all about the locality and its people.

We arrived at Louisville late in the night, after all had retired, but were wakened at the peep o'day by a noisy Owen county tobacco grower, who having come down to sell his "crop" of the weed, was getting his party together to go up into the city, and wanted to know "whar the h—l's Poi." "I'll bet er dollar, Major, if I could get one pull at him I'd jerk him out er that."

After breakfast "Grandma" and the balance of the ladies started out to do the city, taking the Judge along with them, and on returning to the boat in the afternoon he was almost ready to make oath that they had walked him about 20 miles and had stopped in at every dry goods store on the route. It was our intention to return on the train, and we left the boat for that purpose, but when three o'clock came it found us again on board waiting for the Captain to shout "all gone," and tap the bell. The ride down had been so pleasant we could not resist the temptation to go back the same way, especially as the boys had telephoned that the office was running all right in our absence.

At Utica, Indiana, 325 barrels of lime and plaster were taken on board, and while they were being loaded the passengers had an opportunity of examining the large lime-kilns located there. Here a shower of rain came up which so cooled the atmosphere that an overcoat would have been comfortable.

After the boat got back into the Kentucky river, and each moment brought us nearer home, all expressed their regret that a trip which had been so very pleasant was so soon to be ended, and when we left her at the wharf it was with the firm conviction that we had never had a more pleasant ride, fared better, or enjoyed ourselves more for less money than at any time in our lives before.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian Church of this city will give a tea at the beautiful grounds of Miss Maggie Gaines, on Clinton street, on next Tuesday evening, July 14, from 6 until 10 o'clock. Delicous lees and eaks will be served, the entire cost being only 25cts. The croquet grounds will be open for the use of those attending from 6 until 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Bon T. Elliot, who has been in feeble health for months, is much worse.

Mr. John Angrave, who has been sorely afflicted with "olion oak" for several weeks, is some better.

Mr. ——— Haquin and wife, of Madison county, are visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. Len Blythe and family, of Grafton, were the guests of Charles Jenkins and wife last Sunday.

Owing to the two weeks of delightful weather just past the wheat and clover have been saved in good condition.

Filles are excellent scavengers; therefore we admit our inability to understand why people wish to exterminate them.

Rev. L. H. Salt and wife, of Owen county, were the guests of Mrs. F. M. Scofield Friday night of last week.

Mr. F. M. Scofield has been adding very greatly to the appearance of his premises recently by additional fencing, painting, &c.

Wm. Butch McWilliams, who has been in Shelby county during the past month, has returned home accompanied by her cousin, Miss Lena Smith.

Regular services at Franklin Church to-day at 2 p.m., and to-morrow at 11 a.m., Rev. B. F. Hungerford, pastor of New South Union Church, officiating. All are invited.

From present indications we should judge that the young man of Grafton, whose visits to this vicinity are quite frequent and regular, must have business of importance.

Next Saturday will be the regular day for the meeting of the Franklin County Teachers' Association. It is to be hoped that as new year in the schools arrives, its arrival will be heralded by teachers and trustees especially, as well as by parents, whose co-operation in this matter is important to accomplish greater results in matters pertaining to education. We therefore again earnestly appeal to the teachers to be present and assist in this laudable work.

Antoon

Dry and hot. Oh, for a refreshing shower.

Preaching at Antioch to-morrow at 11 a.m., Sundays school at 9 a.m.

Miss Larona Glore, who has been visiting us here last Tuesday.

Mrs. Martha Walatka gave a burlesque on friends last Saturday. It was not intended as opposition to the barbecue, but for the benefit of those who could not get to the barbecue. They had a real nice time. We are sorry that circumstances prevented us from being present at either.

The Franklin County Teachers' Association will meet in regular session in the City School building next Saturday at 10 a.m. Let every teacher, private or public, be present to help make the meeting a success in the cause of education in this county. We also earnestly invite the friends of the cause to meet with us and give us their aid, counsel and encouragement.

The delegates to the State Teachers' Association from this county who were present and took part in the proceedings of that body were Misses Katie Shipp, Mary T. Morris and Messrs. T. B. Ford, T. E. Utterback and Thos. Hunter, and all them report they had a very pleasant and interesting meeting. There were 350 delegates entitled. Everything passed off pleasantly and harmoniously.

There was an old fashioned 4th of July barbecue given on the F. & F. C. pike near Stoney Creek last Saturday.

There was a good crowd out, several ladies and gentlemen from Frankfort. All report having enjoyed the barbecue and not a drunken man on the ground. Speeches were made by Col. S. I. M. Major, Col. S. N. Hodges, Messrs. J. Scott, Jas. A. Scott and William Cronin.

"Honor to whom honor is due." Those who were present at the barbecue last Saturday are indebted to Andrew Scott, who was the first to propose and work it up, and to Messrs. James Glare, Henry Spalding, Berry Witt and F. E. Lewis, of the committee. Jas. R. Morris and William Coble, who superintended the cooking, for its success. Col. Simon Hopper unfortunately took sick early in the action and had to retire.

BARTHOLDI'S BIG GIRL.

The Prejudices Met by a Canvasser for the Pedestal Fund.

The Bartholdi pedestal fund is nearly complete. The statue has arrived and soon New York limbo will be graced by the most magnificent colossal statue the world has ever seen.

What a priceless blessing personal liberty is! It is the shrine at which people, ground under the heel of tyranny in the older worlds, worship with a fervency that Americans can scarcely realize. It is a principle for which Northern soldiers fought and died of dogs and fit and proper it is that at the very entrance of the Bay of New York this emblematic statue should dash a welcome to the world.

The press is entitled to the credit of this achievement. Mr. Philip Beers, who has been making a circuit of the country in behalf of the Pedestal Fund, says that the fund will certainly be raised, as the world does not know the word fail.

Mr. Beers says that he has found the most pronounced generosity among those of foreign birth. They seem more appreciative of liberty than do our native born. Moreover, among some a strange prejudice seems to exist.

"Prejudice? In what particular?"

"I have even found that however meritorious a thing may be, thousands of Americans will be prejudiced against it. I have spent much time on the road and I know the American people like a book." In 1870 a personal misfortune illustrated this prevailing prejudice. I was very ill suffered for several years with headache, tickle appetite, dreadful backache, constipation, colic, pain in the feet and a general break down of the system. I dragged myself to New York, seeking the best professional treatment. It so happens that among my relatives is a distinguished physician who upbraided me roundly for preexisting so much about my own case. Finally, with some spirit, I returned to Frankfort.

"Sir, you know that much of your professional wisdom is pretense. You are controlled by prejudice. You cannot reach a case like mine and you know it, can you?"

I have since learned he finally conceded the point, for it was Wright's disease of the kidneys which had prostrated me, and the schoolmen admit they cannot cure it. Having cured myself, however, in 1879, and not having seen a sick day since, my relative finally admitted his error.

Wright's case was really a wonderful preparation. Had President Rutherford, of the Central Hudson, used it, I am certain he would be alive to-day, for he could not have been in a worse condition than I was."

"I have found similar prejudices among all classes concerning even so humble a scheme as this pedestal fund."

Mr. Beers' experience and the recent death of President Rutherford, of the Central Hudson railroad, of an extreme kidney disorder, proves that the physical power over such diseases, and indicating the course one should pursue if, as Dr. William Parker says, headache, sickness of the stomach, dropical swellings, backache, dark and offensive fluids, prematurely impaired eyesight, loss of strength and energy occur, for they are usually indicative of a fatal result, if not promptly arrested."
